PART 1 – CHAIRMANSHIP AND GUIDANCE FOR PARISH COUNCILLORS

(NOTE: In this part, the word “Chairman” means the person actually presiding at a meeting (the role can be called ‘Chair’ or ‘Chairperson’) and “Council” includes “committee” where any function has been delegated. Standing Orders in Part II may be applied or modified accordingly.)

BASIC PRINCIPLES

1. The Members of the Council (Councillors) and the Council's officer (the Clerk) make and carry out the Council's decisions. They cannot do this properly unless they have instructions which they can understand.
2. It is a primary function of the Council to frame instructions upon which people can act; even a decision to take no action is an instruction.
3. The Council's instructions are conveyed via resolutions and it is the purpose of the Council's proceedings to reach without unreasonable delay, an intelligible and lawful decision for the right reasons.
4. The duty of a Chairman is to ensure that this purpose is achieved and to this end s/he must –
 - (a) protect the Council against outside interference
 - (b) ensure that everything to be discussed is lawful
 - (c) ensure that the Council is invited to deal with clear issues
 - (d) ensure that as far as possible information is complete
 - (e) permit every point of view to have a fair hearing
 - (f) ensure that opinions expressed are relevant to the matter in hand
 - (g) ensure that business is transacted with reasonable speed
 - (h) ensure as far as possible that proceedings are friendly and free from personalities
 - (j) co-operate with the officers and councillors.

THE AUTHORITY OF THE CHAIRMAN

Origins

5. The office of Chairman of a local authority is created by statute, which has conferred upon the occupant of the Chair a second (casting) vote on all occasions but one. The scope of his/her authority also depends upon ancient customs which are perfectly logical and arise from the necessities of each case.

Nature and Limitations

6. The Chairman's procedural authority is derived from the Council as a whole and his/her rulings must be obeyed by an individual Councillor because they are the rulings of the Council itself. It follows from this, however, that the Chairman cannot overrule the Council and that a Councillor who is dissatisfied by the Chairman's ruling may invite the Council to disagree with it. Such appeals against the Chair ought to be very rare.
7. The authority of the Chairman as such is limited to matters of procedure and neither increases nor decreases his/her right (in comparison with other Members) to discuss the merits of a particular case. It is one of his most difficult tasks to remember that while the Chair gives him/her authority on matters of procedure, it confers no rights (other than the casting vote) on matters of policy which are not possessed by other members.

The Chairman is the final arbiter on the interpretation of the Standing Orders.

PRELIMINARY

8. Before any meeting the Chairman should study the agenda items with the Clerk and should, in effect, ask in respect of each item the following questions –
 - What does it mean?
 - Is it lawful?

- Do we know enough about it?
- Has any member special knowledge of this problem?
- Is there any member who may have a prejudicial interest?

PUBLIC DISTURBANCES

9. No-one is entitled to interrupt or obstruct the proceedings of the Council or its Committees. In general, it is best to stop an interruption at once and the Chairman should cut an interrupter short, and may have to warn him/her that they will be removed from the meeting if they do it again. If this warning is ignored, it should be resolved, without discussion, that the interrupter be excluded, and if they fail to leave they should be removed by force. Care should be taken to use no more force than necessary. It is not essential to call the police, but may be necessary.
10. The Chairman should never argue or allow argument with an interrupter. If the public becomes disorderly it may be necessary to close the meeting or to adjourn to a more private place. It is, however, illegal to decide to exclude the public from any future meeting. The press is in a privileged position as its representatives must, so far as possible, be given facilities.

NON-PECUNIARY AND DISCLOSABLE PECUNIARY INTERESTS

11. The law requires that where a Member has a personal interest in any matter s/he must disclose the existence and nature of that interest. If the personal interest is also prejudicial it requires that the Member should withdraw from the room and take no further part in the relevant proceedings or seek to influence those proceedings. The Chairman should, before a meeting, consider whether any Member may have such interest, and may draw the individual Member's attention to this before the meeting. Ultimately, it is for any Member to decide whether or not to disclose any relevant interest. Failure to disclose an interest (disclosable pecuniary interest (DPI) or non-pecuniary interest) can lead to criminal proceedings (in the case of a DPI) and investigation by the principal authority's Monitoring Officer.

RULINGS ON NOTICES

12. The Chairman must be satisfied that the meeting is lawful. S/he does not need to have personal knowledge that the proper notices and summonses have been issued, but if complaints are made s/he must give a ruling. A meeting is not necessarily illegal because someone has not received a notice to which s/he is entitled, but where an irregularity appears to be intentional or important, the meeting should be adjourned until it has been corrected.

QUORUM

13. No business can be transacted if no quorum is present. This rule applies not only to cases of physical absence but to cases of disqualification by interest. A situation may arise where the Council cannot act because it is impossible to obtain a disinterested quorum. In such a case, the Chairman should adjourn the matter until it can be next dealt with. Those Members with a prejudicial interest should consider making an application to the principal authority. .

ULTRA VIRES PROPOSALS

14. The Chairman should satisfy him/herself that any proposal involving expenditure is lawful and should rule any unlawful proposal or amendment out of order. Where there is any doubt, advice should be sought well before the meeting and in time to delete it, if necessary, from the agenda. The Section 137 power (contained in the Local Government Act 1972) requires a special resolution, related to the provisions of that section.

A CLEAR ISSUE

15. Every decision of the Council must be made by an affirmative vote of a majority of those present and voting (including where necessary the Chairman's second or casting vote).
 - (a) All motions should be affirmative in form; it is never necessary to move that a resolution be rejected; the vote will determine support or otherwise.
 - (b) Where there is more than one solution to a problem each solution must be separately put to the vote.

THE AFFIRMATIVE FORM

16. The most exact method of putting a question to the vote is by use of the following formula –

“The resolution is as follows –

The motion is that this resolution be agreed to”.

(Note: A resolution is a proposal of the action intended to be taken. A motion is the procedural formula by which the Council disposes of its business).

SEPARATING THE ISSUES

17. In reaching a decision, a Council may from time to time be faced with alternative solutions. Some alternatives may be mutually exclusive; others may be matters of detail relating to the principal issue.
18. Where alternatives are mutually exclusive it may be desirable to discuss the resolutions until general trend of opinion is apparent and then to put one of them in the form of an amendment, so that a decision to provide one option in practice excludes the other. A vote on an amendment does not end the matter; it merely decides what shall be discussed next. Thus, if the amendment is carried, all further discussion becomes out of order, but the Council has yet to decide whether the major operation shall be carried out at all. This is done by putting the resolution as amended, to the vote.

DELEGATION ARRANGEMENTS

19. Clear delegation arrangements structure the manner in which a local council's business is affected and dictate the way in which decisions (relating to activities, services and expenditure) are made. A council's delegation arrangements reflect the number of Councillors, the size of its population, the level of precept, the range of activities undertaken and services and facilities provided expert knowledge or interest held by councillors and the number of, and expertise of its employees.
20. Pursuant to S.101(1) of the LGA 1972, a local council may arrange for the discharge of any of its functions to -
- A committee (and any sub-committee); or
 - An employee; or
 - Another local authority

Under S.101 (1) a council can still perform and is responsible in law for any delegated functions.

21. S.101 (1) prevents any statutory power or function or decisions relating to, or arising from them, to be taken by an individual Councillor, including the Chairman of the council.
22. Where an individual Councillor takes a decision which purports to bind the Parish Council, this will be illegal and the Councillor will be liable for any financial consequences which flow from the action. In the event of the Parish Council deciding to ratify such a decision, it is possible for the external auditor to surcharge all individual Councillors.

METHOD OF VOTING

23. The rules on the manner in which decisions are taken apply in all cases. Every decision must be reached by a majority of those voting. Appointments to employments must be decided in the same way as other questions.

COMPLETENESS OF INFORMATION

24. Sensible decisions cannot be reached without reasonable complete information which it is usually the duty of the Clerk to supply. The Chairman should, before the meeting, consider whether enough information is available or likely to be made available. If it appears at the meeting that information is still insufficient s/he should move to adjourn consideration until more is known, and sometimes it may be desirable to frame questions and to instruct the Clerk to obtain the answers by a specified date.

IMPARTIALITY

25. When differences of opinion develop in discussion it is the duty of the Chairman to give a fair hearing to all points of view. Experience has shown that the safest and least controversial course is for the Chairman to call upon speakers for and against a proposal to speak alternately and herself to avoid speaking first or last.
26. Some people are better at putting a case than others and the Chairman ought to allow reasonable latitude to the less eloquent.

RELEVANCE

General Rule

27. A speech must be directed to the point under discussion and nothing else, but too harsh a suppression from the Chair can breed ill-will and a sense of grievance.

Personalities

28. The Chairman should do her best to prevent personal observations in discussion. The custom whereby speeches are in form addressed to the Chairman only should be observed because it forces members to employ an impersonal mode of expression. If a member makes an offensive personal observation, the Chairman should immediately intervene to seek apology to an offended member.

Methods of Enforcement

29. Where a speech is obviously irrelevant the Chairman should stop the speaker and invite her to return to the point. Where the irrelevance is not quite so obvious, the Chairman may often find it convenient to ask the speaker to explain how his/her remarks relate to the issue.

Revival of Decided Issues

30. The Chairman should not allow a matter which has been decided to be reported at the same meeting. An attempt to “hark back” to a previous agenda item should be firmly ruled out of order as irrelevant to the matter now under discussion, even if the Member who raises it was not present when the item was discussed.

Minutes

31. Minutes of any meeting are generally expected to be brief and serve as an accurate and legal record of the business conducted at a meeting, although the minutes of a committee and any sub-committee must provide sufficient information about that meeting to equip the appointing body and ultimately full council, with any information needed to make any subsequent decision.
32. It is useful for the minutes of a committee and any sub-committee meeting to separate -
 - (i) the resolutions in respect of matters which have been decided by it (if it has delegated powers);
 - (ii) reports and or recommendations which are required to be referred to the appointing body for a final decision.

Any record of a decision contained in the minutes must be self-explanatory (i.e. it should stand alone) and should not rely on additional information or documentation for it to be understood.

33. A council must always expect to justify a decision or action. If it is able to produce a paper trail which demonstrates how, why and when a particular decision was made, or what considerations were taken into account, the Council is well-placed to demonstrate whether or not a particular decision was based on the relevant facts and considerations.
34. One of the commonest irrelevancies is the practice of attempting to discuss the merits of what is contained in the minutes on a motion for their signature as a correct record. On such a motion the only issue is whether the words of the minutes accurately record the events at the meeting of which they are a record.

35. It is the role of the Clerk to record the decisions of the Parish Council in minutes. Whilst the Parish Council is able to make amendments in respect of accuracy of the minutes, the Clerk has overall responsibility for the minutes and is responsible for presentation of the minutes in any court action. Although the Clerk is an employee, s/he has a professional independence and parish councillors should not seek to fetter this.
36. If any substantial issue arises on a matter dealt with in the Minutes it is better to have a separate agenda item than to discuss it under "Matters Arising". That heading should only be used for reports of progress, and not for new or additional decisions.
37. Letters received by the Council should not be read out verbatim. On the very rare occasions that the exact text is needed by every councillor, the Clerk should issue copies.
38. Naming of individuals - it is tempting for Members to name, for example, Officers of the Borough Council. This should be avoided and reference to their title only is the preferred mode.

REASONABLE DESPATCH

Intervals

39. It is important that business should be transacted with reasonable speed. Long meetings can reduce the level of attentiveness and public spirit, and long intervals between meetings lead to missed opportunities and lack of continuity. The Council should meet at least once a month, and the Chairman ought not to hesitate to call special meetings in necessary cases. The right of Local Councils to be notified of planning applications makes this especially important.

Obstruction at Meetings

40. Deliberate obstruction is rare but must be firmly dealt with when it occurs. It is difficult to be directly obstructive for long without being irrelevant, and therefore deliberate obstruction sometimes takes the form of raising a succession of points of order. In dealing with this type of obstruction it is well to remember that a point is not necessarily a point of order because the person who makes it labels it as such.

Repetition

41. If it is evident that nothing new can be said on either side in a particular discussion, a Chairman is justified in putting the matter to the vote even though there are still members wishing to speak.

References

42. All deliberative bodies have a natural tendency to refer questions to someone else (e.g. an Officer of a Committee) for consideration or report. These are frequently unnecessary because they are often used only when a Council is unwilling to make a final decision.

SOME PROCEDURAL POINTS

Points of Order

43. Points of Order relate to procedure only and take precedence over all other business. It is the duty of the Chairman to deal with them. A Member may rise on a point of order or personal explanation and shall be entitled to be heard immediately. A point of order shall relate only to an alleged breach of a Standing Order or statutory provision, and the Member shall specify the Procedure Rule or statutory provision and the way in which she considers it has been breached. A personal explanation shall be confined to some material part of a former speech by him/her which may appear to have been misunderstood in the current debate. If a point relates to the substance of a matter under discussion it is not a point of order and should be ruled out of order by the Chairman. The person raising the matter of substance in this way should be told to save it for his speech on the business.

Procedural Resolutions

44. Procedural resolutions should normally be put without discussion. The usual exceptions are resolutions to (a) correct minutes; (b) alter the order of business; and (c) refer to committee.

Closure Motions

45. The following are the respective effects of closure resolutions –
- (a) On the passing of a resolution to proceed to next business, proceedings on the business in hand come to a stop and no decision upon it can be taken.
 - (b) On the passing of a resolution that the question be now put, the mover is usually entitled to reply before the matter is put to the vote. By custom, the Chairman may refuse to accept such a resolution until he thinks that the matter has been sufficiently debated.
 - (c) A resolution to adjourn a discussion or a meeting, stops the discussion at the moment it is passed and no decision is taken on the business. The discussion may later be resumed at the point where it was interrupted.

Amendments

46. An amendment which in substance negates the principal resolution should not be allowed because it is unnecessary (a vote against will have the same effect). An amendment should always be put to the vote before the resolution which it seeks to amend.

“Any Other Business”

47. The summons to a meeting of a Local Council must, by law, specify the business to be transacted; a Local Council cannot legally decide to take any action under the general heading of “any other business” because these words do not specify any item of business. The rule prevents the Council deciding any business which will have either expenditure consequences or lead the Council into a legal situation, e.g. making a contract.

‘Urgent’ Business

48. The law makes no provision for dealing with “urgent” business. The only “urgent business” which can be dealt with is for the Chairman to vary the order of business on the agenda. If business is “urgent” only because it was not notified in time to appear on the agenda, it should be left until the next meeting. If it is genuinely “urgent”, that is, it was too late for the agenda and it will be too late for action if left until the next ordinary meeting, an additional meeting should be called, or the Council should have a regular arrangement for the reference of such matters either to a committee or to the Clerk, for action. It is contrary to Local Government law for the Chairman, or any other single member to take a decision binding the Council.

USE OF CHAIRMAN’S VOTES

49. Save on one occasion, the Chairman has both an ordinary and a casting vote. There is no rule of law which requires her to give her ordinary vote at the same time as the other Members are voting, but it is obviously undesirable and undignified for her to wait and then vote.
50. Where there is an equality of votes a Chairman ought to give a casting vote, if at all possible, in such a way that the matter can be considered again; for instance, on a motion to accept a particular tender a vote in favour will conclude the matter, but a vote against will leave the way open for further negotiations or reconsideration.

PRESENCE OF THE PUBLIC AND PRESS

51. In principle, the public (which includes the press and ward Councillors) is entitled to be present at all meetings of the Council and its committees, and ought to be admitted to sub-committees. The Council or a committee, however, may exclude the public for a particular item of business, if it is reasonably of the opinion that such exclusion is in the public interest. Under the Public Bodies (Admission to Meetings) Act 1960, the Parish Council has broader powers than the Borough Council to exclude members of the press and public on the grounds that the matter(s) to be discussed are of a confidential and special nature and the public interest would not be served in disclosing that information. Business is “confidential” if its discussion must be kept secret; if it is “special” the reasons for secrecy must be stated in any case where the need for secrecy is not obvious; for example, where matters are of a sensitive nature which might contravene the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998.

52. Where the public and press have been excluded, the decisions made in the closed session must be minuted and a record should be kept of who was present at the session, if different from those who were present throughout the meeting. It is good practice to record when Members either join or withdraw from a meeting.
53. There are occasions when it is necessary for individuals other than Members or the Clerk to remain in a meeting when the public and press have been excluded. This depends on the role of the individuals concerned; for example, if they have been invited to the meeting to offer technical or professional advice to Members.
54. In the case of other individuals who simply have some background knowledge of the issue, it would be difficult to argue that they should be treated any differently from any other member of the public for the purposes of exclusion. As an example, principal authority Councillors will sometimes have knowledge that other members of the public might not, but whilst they make a valuable contribution to Parish Council meetings, in legal terms they are members of the public.
55. It is important for Members not to allow themselves to get into a position where they are selecting who should remain in the meeting; this could lead to an abuse of procedure and bring the Parish Council into disrepute. It would also enable accusations to be made that some individuals were allowed to exercise undue influence.

MALADMINISTRATION

56. Local Councils are not subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Ombudsman. There is no outside body which can adjudicate on complaints about the procedures of a Local Council if the law has not been broken. It is, however, important for the good name of the Council that complaints be handled properly and fairly.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

57. The public cannot take part in the proceedings of the Council, but an increasing number of Councils have created and sustained public interest in their work by arranging for a short period in meetings (say 20 to 30 minutes) when members of the public are permitted to put questions to the Council or to make observations.

LENGTH OF MEETINGS

58. Experience suggests that a meeting should never be allowed to continue for more than two hours without a break.

STANDING ORDERS

Standing Orders in bold type are statutory and cannot be amended by the Parish Council. Standing orders not in bold type are aimed at highlighting matters that merit regulation by standing orders and encourage use of standing orders to regulate routine administrative arrangements. They may be adapted in their current form but are more likely to require adapting or supplementing to suit a Council's particular needs. A Council should not to adopt standing orders which undermine, override or conflict with any requirements imposed by legislation.

1 MEETINGS

- a. Meetings shall not take place in premises, which at the time of the meeting, are used for the supply of alcohol unless no other premises are available free of charge or at a reasonable cost.
- b. Meetings shall be open to the public unless their presence is prejudicial to the public interest by reason of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted or for other special reasons. The public's exclusion from part or all of a meeting shall be by a resolution which shall give reasons for the public's exclusion.
- c. Subject to standing order 1(b) above, any local resident may submit a question, or make a statement, either in writing prior to the meeting, addressed to the Parish Clerk, or orally at the meeting. The Parish Council shall allow a 10-minute period for questions at the early part of the meeting subject to standing order 1(b) above, following notification of apologies, declarations of interest and approval of minutes.

The following shall apply –

The question should relate to the duties of the Parish Council. In the case of written questions, the Clerk will advise the Chairman if the question is appropriate, potentially defamatory, or abusive language has been used. In these circumstances, a decision may be taken to withhold the question from the meeting.

There shall be no discussion on any matter raised by such questions.

If possible, a response shall be given at the meeting; otherwise a written response will be provided to the questioner. Any parish councillor may move a motion that the subject matter be placed on the agenda of the next ordinary meeting. On being seconded, the matter shall be put to the vote.

- d. Subject to standing order 1(c) above, each member of the public is entitled to speak once only in respect of business itemised on the agenda and shall not speak for more than 10 minutes, dependent on the number of speakers in attendance. The Chairman shall have the discretion to extend the public speaking time, if considered appropriate.
- e. In accordance with standing order 1(d) above, a question asked by a member of the public during a public participation session at a meeting shall not require a response or debate.
- f. In accordance with standing order 1(d) above, a question asked by a member of the public during a public participation session at a meeting shall not require a response or debate.
- g. A record of a public participation session at a meeting shall be included in the minutes of that meeting to the extent only that members of the public were in attendance and addressed the Council.
- h. Any person speaking at a meeting shall address their comments to the Chairman.

- i. Members of the public shall be allowed to photograph, record, broadcast or transmit the proceedings of a meeting by any means in accordance with The Openness of Local Government Bodies Regulations 2014 which came into force in August 2014.

Arrangements shall be made for members of the public and press who wish to record the proceedings. However, these must not cause disruption to the Parish Council proceedings. People acting in a disruptive manner can be excluded from the meeting.

Disruption shall include (but not be limited to):

- Moving to areas outside the area designated for the public without the consent of the Chairman;
 - Excessive noise in recording or setting-up or re-siting equipment during the debate;
 - Intrusive lighting and use of flash photography; and
 - Asking people to repeat statements for the purposes of recording.
- j. The press shall be provided reasonable facilities for the taking of their report for all or part of a meeting at which they are entitled to be present.
- k. Subject to standing orders which indicate otherwise, anything authorised or required to be done by, to, or before the Chairman, may, in her absence be done by, to, or before the Vice-Chairman.
- l. The Chairman, if present, shall preside at a meeting. If the Chairman is absent from a meeting, the Vice-Chairman, if present, shall preside. If both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman are absent from a meeting, a Councillor as chosen by the Councillors present at the meeting shall preside at the meeting.
- m. Subject to standing order 1(t) below, all questions at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of the Councillors present and voting thereon.
- n. The Chairman may give an original vote on any matter put to the vote, and in the case of an equality of votes, may exercise her casting vote whether or not she gave an original vote.
- o. Unless standing orders provide otherwise, voting on any question shall be by a show of hands. At the request of a Councillor, the voting on any question shall be recorded so as to show whether each councillor present and voting gave his/her vote for or against that question. Such a request must be supported by at least one-third of the Council present. The request must be made before moving on to the next item of business on the agenda.
- p. The minutes of a meeting shall record the names of Councillors present and absent.
- q. If prior to a meeting, a Councillor has submitted reasons for his absence at the meeting, which have been approved, such approval shall be recorded in the minutes.
- (Note: This does not obviate the need for councillors with prolonged absence, to notify the Council of his/her reasons for absence under the 6-month rule (S.85(1) of the Local Government Act 1972) and for the reasons to be approved or rejected by the Council.
- r. The Code of Conduct adopted by the Council shall apply to Councillors in respect of the entire meeting.

- s. Any interest arising from the Code of Conduct adopted by the Council, the existence and nature of which is required to be disclosed by a Councillor at a meeting, shall be recorded in the minutes.
- t. No business may be transacted at a meeting of the Council or a committee, or a sub-committee unless at least one-third of the whole number of Members are present; and in no case shall the quorum of any meeting be fewer than 3.
- u. If a meeting is, or becomes inquorate, no business shall be transacted and the meeting shall be adjourned.

18 ACCOUNTS AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

- a All payments by the Council shall be laid before the Council and authorised, approved and paid in accordance with the Council's financial regulations, which shall be reviewed at least annually.

The Parish Council holds a bank account from which cheques can be drawn or electronic payments (bank transfers) can be processed.

Payments are made on the following terms – the presentation of proper invoices to the Clerk; contractual liabilities detailed in any contracts; expense claims by officers/councillors; grant payments authorised by the Council.

The Council will usually not make payments for services or items before the item or service has been delivered unless there is no other option. This is to ensure that the retrospective use of funds is better protected and reduces the risk of fraud regarding contractors or suppliers not fulfilling a contractor, delivering a service or item.

- b The Council does recognise that there are occasions when a prepayment is required to get a service or goods to be delivered. This includes items purchased online. For any payments that are required before goods and services are delivered, the Council must be confident that it has done its best due diligence to minimise fraud.

To make any such prepayments – the Council should adhere to the following process: -

- The required payment is detailed on the agenda for a full council meeting.
- The Clerk must provide to the Councillors a clear and appropriate

'demand for payment' invoice showing all the pertinent details expected in a proper format iii. The Council must discuss the reason for the expenditure, what controls and due diligence has been done to ensure the goods or service will be delivered.

- The Chair must ask for a motion to be proposed, seconded and then approved (by at least a majority of Councillors present as long as the meeting is quorate).
- The decision to approve the payment must be clearly minuted and show who the payee is, what the service or goods the payment is for and how much the payment is for.

No payment for any prepayment demand can be made unless the following is carried out: -

- The payment has been fully detailed in an agenda (and has been published as required by statute) and then agreed at a meeting of a quorate Council.
- The payment has been agreed by the Clerk through their role as the Responsible Financial Officer (RFO).
- A detailed note should be made of why the payment was required urgently and not delayed to the next meeting of the Council.
- The Clerk designates that there is an emergency payment required and has discussed this with the Chair – this should be used in only the most extreme circumstances and must be clearly noted in the meeting minutes with a full explanation of why the payment was made.

In terms of how any payment is made, the following steps should be followed: -

- The minutes must also show the way the payment will be made – i.e. cheque or bank transfer.
- For cheque payments - the Clerk must ensure the cheque payee matches the invoice demand for payment regarding name and payment amount. The cheque stub must be fully completed. They must then ensure that two Councillors with authority through the bank mandate sign the cheque. The Councillors must check the details are correct before they sign for authorisation for payment.
- For payments through bank transfers - the Clerk must ensure that the bank payee details are clear and that the bank account to where the payment is made is in a United Kingdom bank. They must then input the details on the bank payment processing system and await the two Councillors to whom have delegated authority to agree payments through the online banking system. The Councillors must check the details are correct before they digitally sign for authorisation for payment.

In terms of the process of recording payments, the following processes should be followed: -

- The Clerk must ensure that the payment (through whatever method) is included in the cashbook and is shown in the bank reconciliations.
- The bank reconciliations must show if any cheque payment has been cashed or if it is awaiting payment process.
- The Clerk must ensure that a receipt for payment is received to then marry up to any cheque stubs or bank statements.
- Any VAT paid must be clearly recorded on the financial records so a VAT reclaim can be made from HMRC.

- c The Responsible Financial Officer shall supply to each councillor as soon as practicable after 31 March, 30 June, 30 September and 31 December in each year a statement summarising the Council's receipts and payments for each quarter and the balances held at the end of a quarter.
